

UNICEF ADOLESCENT/YOUTH ADVISORY BOARDS

WHY AND HOW TO GET INVOLVED?

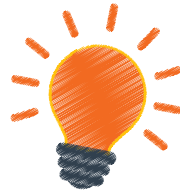

THE WORK OF THE ADVISORY BOARD

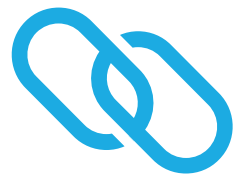

is a voice on children's and adolescents' rights raises awareness on UNICEF's work provides insight about what children and young people like and care about creates bridges - between UNICEF and the civil society

WHY SHOULD YOU GET INVOLVED?

You will be supporting UNICEF's efforts in reaching a wider audience of young people and developing policies and instruments for young people, in collaboration with young people.

You will be able to launch discussions on topics that really matter to you and influence policies and programmes (e.g. youth unemployment, job insecurities, transition from school to work, etc.)

HOW TO GET INVOLVED?

- Follow the website of the UNICEF Office in your country
- Get in touch with them and ask about news regarding the Advisory Board
- Participate in consultations and other events that UNICEF is organizing

